

Black Voices, Black Lives

A two-day series of events at the University of Aberdeen exploring the expression and articulation of black experience from different historical, cultural and creative perspectives.

Friday 29th October, 2021 (Sir Duncan Rice Library, Meeting Room 1, and online)

3 - 4pm (BST), Maisha Wester, 'Black Voices Speaking Back'

4.30 - 5.30 pm (BST), Leila Aboulela, 'Decolonising the Tragic Victorian Hero: A Fictional Recounting, from a Sudanese Perspective, of Gordon of Khartoum'

Saturday 30th October, 2021 (online)

2 - 3pm (BST) Sophie White, 'Voices of the Enslaved: Silence and Eloquence'

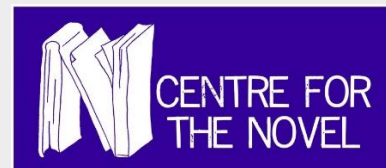

3.30 – 4.30pm (BST) Panel Discussion with all speakers

Co-Hosted by WORD Centre for Creative Writing and the Centre for the Novel, supported by Creative Scotland and the School of Language, Literature, Music and Visual Culture

ALBA | CHRUTHACHAIL

If you would like to be kept informed about this event, please email helena.ifill@abdn.ac.uk